Employability Skills

Employability skills are skills that apply across a variety of jobs and life contexts. They are sometimes referred to as key skills, core skills, life skills, essential skills, key competencies, necessary skills, and transferable skills.

Employability skills are defined as "skills required not only to gain employment, but also to progress within an enterprise so as to achieve one's potential and contribute successfully to enterprise strategic directions".

The Business Council of Australia (BCA) and the Australian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (ACCI), produced the Employability Skills for the Future report in 2012.

The report indicated that business and industry now require a broader range of skills, identifying eight employability skills:

- communication
- teamwork
- problem solving
- initiative and enterprise
- planning and organising
- self-management
- learning
- technology

1. Name four (4) of the “employability skills”?

- 1)
- 2)
- 3)
- 4)

2. Which two organisations produced the Employability Skills for the Future report?

- 1)
- 2)

3. Which year was the report produced?
